Dear everyone and the coordinators of this Silent Mentor appreciation ceremony

I am here to represent my family and friends and the "Silent Mentor", my husband Kang Kok Cheng, everyone used to call him Master Bunty, thanks to everyone here today I would like to commemorate him. The Silent Mentor appreciation ceremony made me feel proud and grateful. I also hope that more people will participate in this "Silent Mentor" program.

Master Bunty made a great decision to donate his body to the Department of Anatomy, NUS. He wanted to contribute to his country and society when he was 32 years old in 1982. We all take time to grow up, but Master Bunty made this decision at a young age. This kind of self-sacrificing love for others will keep Master Bunty in the hearts of future generations forever and will never be erased. Moreover, Master Bunty was talented in music and the arts. On the day of the death of the founding father of Singapore, Mr. Lee Kuan Yew, Master Bunty turned his grief into strength, expressing his grief with paintings and poems, and painted the portrait of Mr. Lee Kuan Yew. On the opening day, my husband and I went to the Tanjong Pagar community together and spent up with the public to express our condolences. Together with my husband, I donated the portrait and poems of Mr. Lee Kuan Yew as a souvenir for future generations. Master Bunty lived a fruitful life, although he grew up in a martial arts family, he appreciated culture and was passionate about living a meaningful life, building his own personal taste and philosophy of life. Master Bunty's broad and profound knowledge allows the living to see the world is full of love, health and happiness!

Now let me spend a few minutes to tell you our love story. I come from China. My name is Li Ping, or you can call me Lisa. In 1992, I was managing a "Ye Lai Xiang Restaurant", and met Master Bunty. I was around 30 years old, and Master Bunty was curious about me after seeing how I managed the restaurant well. He kept in contact with me even after he returned to Singapore. I got married to Master Bunty in Singapore in 2000 in this beautiful garden city.
