

INTERPROFESSIONAL EDUCATION:

REALITY OR HYPE?

DR KENNEDY NG

Senior Resident, Medical Oncology,
National Cancer Centre Singapore

MS MAYBELLINE OOI

Staff Nurse, Coronary Care Unit,
National University Health System

The goal of IPE is for students to learn how to function in an interprofessional team and carry this knowledge, skill, and value into their future practice, ultimately providing interprofessional patient care as part of a collaborative team and focused on improving patient outcomes. Join us in this session as Dr Kennedy Ng and Ms Maybelline Ooi share with us on their IPE experiences during their undergraduate days, its impact on their current practice, as well as opportunities to further IPE after graduation.
