

Saturday 23 January 2021, 2.45pm

Orchard Room, Virtual Conference

SHORT COMMUNICATION 2

Start Small and Aim Big in Conducting a Basic Surgical Skills Workshop for Medical Student

Kheng Tian Lim, Singapore

Turning a Seemingly Incoherent Medical Team and Its Complex Patients into an Effective Curriculum for Adult Learners

Serene Wong, Singapore

Teacher Perception of Peer Assessments in an Undergraduate Nursing Programme at a Sri Lankan University

Anuradha Rathnayake, Sri Lanka

Teaching Consent-Taking Using Simulated Patients: Implementation of a Novel Informed Consent Workshop

Yi Quan Tan, Singapore

Nursing Students Peer Mentorship Programme in Singapore: Mentees' Clinical Skills Learning is Associated with Reflective Ability and Psychological Empowerment

Yanhong Dong, Singapore

Multimedia Prolonged Medical Knowledge

Chien Nguyen Le, Vietnam

A Growth Strategy for Medical Educator: Enhancing Practitioners' Spiritual Care Competence Acquisition

Faith Liao, Taiwan

"Humanistic Medicine: Exploring the Perceptions of Local Medical Students towards the Definition, Significance and Cultivation of Humanistic Behaviour in Medical Education and Practice"

Elizabeth Chan, Singapore

Teaching and Mentoring Online: Experience with Different Strategies

Haiyan Liu, Singapore

Outcome-Based Education: Evaluation, Implementation and Faculty Development

Shazia Iqbal, Saudi Arabia