SERIOUS GAMES FOR EDUCATION
Alexander Nareyek

Immersive virtual environments for teaching and training have reached a quality level that makes them a useful supplement for conventional teaching methods. This workshop will explore underlying technologies, potential impact, requirements, feasibility as well as implementation issues. The workshop consists of an introduction talk, a panel discussion and a roundtable discussion.