GRADUATE DIPLOMA IN MENTAL HEALTH - GDMH

AIM

The Graduate Diploma in Mental Health (GDMH), offered by the Division of Graduate Medical Studies (DGMS), National University of Singapore (NUS) in conjunction with Institute of Mental Health (IMH), aims to increase the capability of general practitioners (GPs) in mental healthcare by training them appropriately for the role to detect and treat less severe mental health disorders in the community.

DURATION

This is a 1-year part-time programme with a 3-year candidature period.

ELIGIBILITY

The course is open to the following:

1. Doctors with a recognised basic medical degree qualification registered with the Singapore Medical Council
2. GPs who have completed housemanship
3. GPs with an interest in Mental Health, including GPs on the Mental Health-GP Partnership Programme
4. Primary Care Physicians; and
5. Doctors with an interest in mental health

PROGRAMME STRUCTURE

The programme comprises of 6 courses as follows:

COURSE 1: Psychosis	- 2 Months
COURSE 2: Mood, Anxiety and Grief	- 2 Months
COURSE 3 : Addiction	- 2 Months
COURSE 4 : Child and Adolescent Mental Health including Learning Disabilities	- 2 Months
COURSE 5 : Psychogeriatrics	- 2 Months
COURSE 6 : Personality Disorders and Psychological Therapies	- 2 Months

The first month in each course comprises of weekly classroom sessions on Saturday afternoons. Clinical attachment is applicable to course 1 - 4 and is a half-day attachment conducted during office hours on weekdays for course 1 - 4. In the second month, candidates will self-study and complete case write-up. Case write-up for course 6 is based on a clinical video and viewing of the video will be at IMH.

The syllabus will be covered by lectures, reading materials, video and live supervision, journal discussion, case vignettes, clinical attachment and/or self-study. Clinical attachment will be available with close supervision and guidance from IMH's doctors.

EXAMINATION AND AWARD OF DIPLOMA

1. Graduate Diploma in Mental Health will be assessed in the following way unless otherwise stated:

- Continuous Assessment (CA) : 60%
- Final examination : 40%
- Total Assessment : 100%

Continuous assessment comprises case discussion, case write-up and examination (applicable for all courses).

2. Course Examination Eligibility

Course examination is part of the continuous assessment. Candidates must complete and minimally receive a 50% pass rate for the following assignments, class participation and clinical attachments to be eligible for course examinations. There will be no re-take of any supplementary course exam paper should candidate fail any course exam.

- Case write-up (for all Courses)
- A minimum of 75% classroom attendance (for all Courses)

- Clinical attachments

 Clinical attachments at IMH are applicable to Course 1 – 4 and are an essential component of the curriculum and a requisite to the course examinations. It is a half-day attachment conducted during office hours on weekdays for each course 1 – 4. The programme administrator will work with you on a suitable timeslot about 1 month prior to the session.*

- Participation in case discussion / case vignettes / live supervision (for all Courses)

3. Final Examination Eligibility

Candidates must pass all continuous assessments to be eligible for the final examination.

4. Award of the Graduate Diploma in Mental Health

Candidates must meet minimum passing criteria for every assessment component within each course to be considered as having passed that course. Candidates who fail to meet the minimum passing criteria for any assessment component in each course shall re-take the entire failed course at the next programme intake. Candidates who fail the final examination shall re-take the final examination within the 3-year candidature period.

Nonetheless, candidates may re-submit a case write-up for review by the examination board within 2 weeks from notification of case write-up results. Candidates shall re-take in the next intake if candidates fail to re-submit case write-up or fail to meet the minimum passing criteria for the re-submission. See Table 1.

Assessment component	Component's weightage	Minimum passing criteria
Continuous Assessment (CA)	60%	30%
~ Case discussion (Part of CA)	12%	6%
~ Case write-up (Part of CA)	18%	9%
~ Course examination (Part of CA)	30%	15%
Final Examination	40%	20%
Total Assessment	100%	50%
