

Urogynaecology Fellowship program

Department of Obstetrics & Gynaecology
National University Health System

Entry Requirements

MMed (O&G) or MRCOG or equivalent

Duration of the entire training programme

6 months to 1 year

Objectives of the training programme

- i. Manage outpatient urogynaecology patients, e.g. overactive bladder, dry and wet, stress urinary incontinence, mixed incontinence, voiding difficulty, urinary tract infection (UTI), recurrent UTIs, painful bladder syndrome, pelvic organ prolapse, dysparenia.
- ii. Perform and interpret urodynamic investigations: filling and voiding cystometry valsalva leak point pressure
- iii. Observe, assist and operate under supervision (Please note that priority to assist or operate will be given to the department's trainees)
 - a. Mid-urethral tape: retropubic and obturator McCall Coldoplasty and
 - b. Vaginal hysterectomy with McCall culdoplasty and bilateral salpingo-oophorectomy, pelvic floor repair
 - c. Manchester repair
 - d. Sacrospinous ligament fixation
 - e. Conventional and vaginal cystocele and rectocele repair
 - f. Vaginal cystocele and rectocele repair using Prosima or Prolift mesh
 - g. Abdominal Sacrocolpopexy
- iv. Management of post-op patients in in-patient ward, especially acute urinary retention

Daily Roster

	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
07 30 – 08 30	Departmental Teaching sessions				NUH Grand Round
08 30 – 13 00	Ward round and Urogynaecology Clinic	Ward Round and Urogynaecology OT	Ward round and Urogynaecology Clinic	Ward Round	Ward round
13 00 – 14 00	Lunch	Benign Gynaecology pre-op Audit	Lunch
14 00 – 18 00		Urogynaecology OT	Urogynaecology OT		Urogynaecology Clinic

Ward Rounds: Daily in AM ± PM

Research: 2 sessions per week

Components of training

Observe, assist, and operate under supervision in clinic and OT.
Teaching and training in clinic, ward and OT.

Supervision

The clinical fellow will train under direct supervision of Dr Ng Kwok Weng Roy (Head of Urogynaecology).

Assessment

Assessment will be done by supervisor on whether the objectives of the training have been met.
Logbook of operations performed has to be kept.

Termination of programme

Absentism without notice or unsatisfactory performance