- ▶ Sign In, Welcome to OSF Dashboard
 - Click “Create New Project”

The screenshot shows the OSF Home dashboard. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the OSF logo and the text 'OSFHOME'. To the right of the logo are links for 'My Quick Files', 'My Projects', 'Search', 'Support', and 'Donate'. Below the navigation bar is a notice: 'Notice: Due to a recent spike in spam activities, we have increased our measures to flag spam content on OSF. Contact support@osf.io if you believe your content has been flagged in error.' Below the notice is a large heading 'Welcome to OSF!' followed by the text 'Visit our Guides to learn about creating a project, or get inspiration from popular public projects.' Below this is a section titled 'Dashboard' with the text 'You have no projects yet. Create a project with the button on the top right. This feature allows you to search and quickly access your projects.' A green button labeled 'Create new project' is highlighted with a red box. Below the text is a search bar and a table of projects.

- ▶ Key in the Project Title & Storage Location (4 Locations to Choose)

The image shows a screenshot of a web application interface for creating a new project. The dialog box is titled "Create new project" and has a close button (x) in the top right corner. It contains two main sections: "Title" and "Storage location".

The "Title" section has a text input field with the placeholder text "Enter project title".

The "Storage location" section has a dropdown menu currently showing "United States". Below the dropdown is a list of four options, with "Australia - Sydney" selected and highlighted in blue:

- Australia - Sydney
- Canada - Montréal
- Germany - Frankfurt
- United States

- ▶ Once a new project is created, you will be directed to this page
 - Default Setting: Make Private
 - Start uploading the files etc

The screenshot shows the OSFHOME project creation interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with 'OSFHOME' and a dropdown menu, and a secondary bar with 'My Quick Files', 'My Projects', 'Search', 'Support', and 'Donate'. Below this, a breadcrumb trail shows 'AAA' and a list of menu items: 'Files', 'Wiki', 'Analytics', 'Registrations', 'Contributors', 'Add-ons', and 'Settings'. The main content area is for a project named 'AAA'. It includes a status bar with 'Private', 'Make Public', 'P 0', and a menu icon. The project details section shows 'Contributors:', 'Date created: 2020-07-08 04:41 PM | Last Updated: 2020-07-08 04:56 PM', 'Category: Project', 'Description: Add a brief description to your project', and 'License: Add a license'. There are four main sections: 'Wiki' with a text area for project information; 'Files' with a table of storage providers (AAA and OSF Storage (United States)); 'Citation' with a dropdown menu; and 'Components' with 'Add Component' and 'Link Projects' buttons. A 'Tags' section has a text input for discoverability. A 'Recent Activity' section is partially visible at the bottom.
