Ong Jia Xin

Medicine
Class of 2024

Recipient of the
Edmund Lee Wah
Bow Bursary, Chan
Family Medical Bursary and
Balaji Sadasivan
Fund Bursary for AY2020/21

“ I am deeply grateful to receive the help from generous donors to fund my medical education, without which, my family would have been under great financial burden. With their support, I am better able to focus on my schoolwork and pursue my extracurricular interests without having to worry about school fees. It is a privilege to have these opportunities to develop myself holistically while serving others in our community. All these would have been incredibly difficult without the donors' help. I am very thankful and at the same time, inspired to give as much as I receive now, if not more, as a doctor in the future.
