

Ms Alicia Lim
Principal Occupational Therapist

- 17 years' experience in working with infants, children and their families
- Currently based in a hospital-based perinatal programme providing supervision to case management officers and interventions to support parenting capacities of women and families