

Dr Caroline Tee, PharmD, BCCCP, BCIDP

Senior Principal Clinical Pharmacist

National University Hospital, Singapore

Biography

Caroline has been in clinical pharmacy for over 15 years. She attained her Doctorate in Clinical Pharmacy and residency training with the University of North Carolina Eshelman School of Pharmacy in Chapel Hill, USA, and the University of North Carolina Hospitals.

She is currently a Critical Care Specialist Pharmacist at the National University Hospital in Singapore and is also highly engaged in the areas of interprofessional education and collaboration.